No.F.13/2/2010-AC/Pt.File/LJS/sina/2409-2SD³ Dated: 26 August, 2021

C I R C U L A R

Subject: Details of condemned vehicles but not yet auctioned.

It has come to the notice of Finance Department that the Departments of GNCT of Delhi have obtained the approval of the competent authority to condemn the vehicles and purchased new vehicles against the condemned one, but the condemned vehicles has not yet been disposed off in terms of GFR, 2017.

2. Non-disposal of condemned vehicles in time leads to deterioration of the condition of the vehicle and thereby chances of getting better prices reduce. Moreover, large space is occupied in almost all the departments by these condemned vehicles.

3. As per Finance Department's O.M. No.F.13/2/2010-AC/dsfa/dsIII/731-732 dated 06.08.2010, MSTC Ltd., a Government of India Enterprise, has already been engaged for undertaking the disposal of surplus or obsolete or unserviceable articles of all the Departments of Government of NCT of Delhi. MSTC Ltd. would act as Selling Agent for disposal of all items by way of e-auction over the Internet through www.mstcecommerce.com. They would arrange publicity for disposal through e-auctions by way of occasional advertisement in leading dailies/newspapers/websites and other Internet tools. The Departments are only required to provide the list of obsolete/surplus/unserviceable materials with detailed specifications and description, location, quantity, quality, etc. to MSTC so as to enable them to take action for the disposal. As per FD's letter of even number dated 07.01.2020, the Selling Agency Agreement with MSTC Ltd. has been extended up to 05.08.2022.

4. All the Departments are, therefore, advised to initiate immediate action for the disposal of condemned vehicles immediately and furnish a report in this regard to Finance Department in the following format within a week:-

Registration Number of the condemned vehicle	Date of approval for condemnation?	Whether new vehicle purchased against it?	Whether condemned vehicle has been auctioned? If not yet auctioned, then reason for it?
