Office Order

1. Instruction of Principal Secretary, PWD, Delhi, note no. PWD/2023/16682 dated 18/09/2023 is reproduced below for strict compliance. All PWD roads in Delhi require massive tree pruning in order to ensure effective utilization of lane traffic. Instructions issued during the G-20 Preparations have not resulted in effective action on ground. The process of removal of trees affecting the traffic & pedestrian movement in PWD roads (incl. new applications & pending applications with Forest Department) shall also be expedited. In addition, the following works shall also be carried out:-
  - (i) Pruning of hedge & side plants as per fixed heights;
  - (ii) Levelling of all manholes and slabs;
  - (iii) Filling of all pot holes;
  - (iv) Fixing of all kerb stones;
  - (v) Removal of remains of all fixtures & poles (including the protruding metallic bolts & nuts)
  - (vi) Removal of old remains of old concrete mixtures on foot path (deposited at the time of carrying out works earlier).
  - (vii) Removal of remains old metallic tree guards etc. which are no longer needed.
2. All divisions are directed to complete all the above works by 30.09.2023 without fail.
3. A special team shall be constituted in PWD Headquarters to monitor progress of work in the is regard.
4. Works attended on the above points shall be reflected in the daily reporting by all the EEs, AEs & JEs in the e-monitoring app of PWD.
5. All SEs and CEs shall also supervise and also carry out daily inspections randomly and record their comments in the e-monitoring app. They shall also daily review with their respective EEs on action taken in the previous day for course corrections, if any.
6. There will be inspections from 01.10.2023 onwards and any laxity will be viewed very seriously warranting initiation of action against erring officials. No leniency will be shown for non-performance and any laxity.

This issues with the approval of E-in-C, PWD Delhi.
