No.IBC/Journal/2019/1690
Dated the 21st Aug., 2019

I gratefully acknowledge the support of your organization for IBC.

As you are aware objective of IBC is to bring professionals of all disciplines connected with Built Environment on a common platform, so as to form collective opinion on matters related to Built Environment and promote the best practices in the profession.

Since its inception, IBC has been engaged in various technical activities for the dissemination of knowledge relating to the Built Environment, amongst the professionals and Construction agencies. To achieve this objective, IBC organizes two National Seminars each year on topics of national importance. In addition several technical Handbooks on important subjects have been published. Other important activities of IBC are Training of Building Professionals & Contractors.

Recently the 4th issue of "IBC Journal" was published in December 2018 and a copy is enclosed for your kind perusal. The subject for next issue of IBC Journal is "Importance of External Development in Building Projects". I will be grateful if you kindly consider contributing a paper on this subject.

To achieve success in our mission towards better Built Environment, contribution from your organization will be valuable. We will be grateful if the paper on the above subject is sent to IBC by email (info@ibc.org.in) in M.S. Word format at an early date, preferably before 15th October 2019.

With regards,

Yours,

(K.B. Rajoria)
